

The Canada Project

Can life be summed up in a scenario? Peter van Gelder thinks so. After his girlfriend Ilona is murdered before his eyes, his life completely collapses. He decides to build a new life in Canada. Because of his love for trucks, he wants to work as a truck driver. There is a heavy shortage there, so Canadians must receive him with open arms. But the reality is different. Through an employment agency he arrives in St. John's Church. Just as he wants to leave this village for another he meets the American actress Tessa Hargrove, a woman who lives her life on the fast lane. His carefully prepared scenario threatens to derail. Also, because Ilona visits him regularly.

About the ebook

The Canada Project is well written and contains strong dialogues. The preparation is described in detail and the ebook discusses the profession of truck driver in Canada. As one of the first ebooks published in The Netherlands The Canada Project is supported with a weblog, which takes you back to the Canada of 2005, the year in which this story takes place. This blog provides a snapshot of the work of a truck driver in Canada, displays documents and provides a background. The weblog is accessible via the website of HQ/e or the ebook itself.

HQ/e's philosophy

Being different from the others. Distinguished. Swim against the stream. Waking off the beaten tracks. It seems difficult, but it is not. Publications by HQ /e make just an extra step to have the story grab the reader. The abnormal is normal. The impossible is within reach. Make it happen. Make it negotiable. Make it possible. Because it's too easy to go heavy subjects out of the way. It is the mainstay of the HQ/e.

Author	Paul Henriquez
Editor	Diederick van Elst
Language	Dutch, with some English names and lines
Genre	Novel
ISBN	978-90-817568-1-5

HQ/e, Praetoriusringel 3, 5144 GS WAALWIJK, The Netherlands, Telephone (+31) (0)6 274 10 440, E: info@hq-e.nl, I: www.hq-e.nl / Twitter: @HQe_Uitgevers
 Registered at Chambers of Commerce, Tilburg, NL, under no. 52808505. The accolade logo is a registered trademark of HQ/e Concepts. General sales conditions apply to all transactions or communications with HQ/e. The general terms are registered at the Chambers of Commerce in Tilburg under number 52808505. A short version is available via our website. The complete version can be and free of charge at request. HQ/e, HQ/e Concepts, HQ/e Publiform en hqbooks.nl are trademarks of HQ/e